As more than the required number of nominations were received for the remaining hapū karanga positions, elections will be required to determine those Trustees and will be conducted by postal and online voting. Adult members of the Trust will be sent a voter pack for their hapū electorate, together with information about the candidates for that election from Friday 25 October 2024 and voting will close at midday on Tuesday 26 November 2024. Any adult member registered for one of the six hapū karanga requiring an election who does not receive a voter pack or requires a replacement should ring the election helpline on 0800 666 035. Please note that members are now unable to change their hapū karanga during the election period.
